Registration fees for Parenting Safe Children workshops are non-refundable. Parenting Safe Children is unable to credit or refund your registration fee for any reason; moreover, your registration fee cannot be transferred from one workshop date to another workshop date. If you cannot attend the workshop for which you have registered, you are welcome, however, to ask a friend or colleague to take your place in the workshop for which you have registered. In the event that you cannot find a replacement, you forfeit your registration fee.

6. How often do you offer the Parenting Safe Children workshop?

Check out our Schedule. If you do not see a workshop that is convenient for you, perhaps you would like to Be a Hero and Host. Otherwise, send me an email so I can keep you updated on future workshop dates.

7. Who attends Parenting Safe Children workshops?

Workshops are for parents, caregivers (e.g., grandparent, other family member, nanny), and professionals who have or work with children, from newborns to 14 years of age. Parents of older teens also attend and find great value. I provide examples relevant to kids of all ages because it's never too early or too late to teach your child body safety skills in an age-appropriate, non-threatening manner.

8. How many people are in each Parenting Safe Children workshop?

Each workshop has a minimum of 20 people. If you are more comfortable with one-on-one interactions, you might consider a private Parenting Safe Children Mini-Talk.

12. Will you do a shorter workshop?

The Parenting Safe Children workshop is 3.5 hours. The length ensures that you leave with practical tools that you can put to immediate use. It's a small investment of time to keep children safe from sexual abuse. If you are a professional, see the Parenting Safe Children Professional In-service training.

13. I'm a survivor. Should I attend and will this upset me?

You are not alone. Given the prevalence of child sexual abuse, there are often survivors participating in my workshops. I work very hard to create a safe environment and encourage people to seek outside support as necessary. Please email me if you would like a referral. Many survivors report that the workshop is healing and gives them confidence in protecting their own children. Regardless, the information presented is invaluable to your family.

14. Can I bring my children?

The workshops are for adults—18 years and older.

15. Should both parents attend?

Absolutely—partnership makes a stronger prevention team!

16. Do you provide continuing education units for professionals?

We can give you a certificate of attendance.
